

Teaching Position

Chartwell is an independent school on the Monterey Peninsula in coastal California, approximately 100 miles south of San Francisco. Chartwell is 34 years old and serves students in grades 2-12, who have been identified as having dyslexia or related language-based learning differences. We are seeking applications for the following position:

- Reading Teacher for the 2017/18 school year

Successful candidates will be dynamic, collaborative, inspirational and tech savvy educators. All applicants must have an academic background that includes an undergraduate degree and experience that reflects a deep understanding of the Orton-Gillingham Approach to teaching reading.

Successful applicants will:

- Have a track record of excellent tutoring and teaching.
- Have experience teaching dyslexic students.
- Be innovative, creative and visionary in program planning and curriculum design.
- Have evidence of collaborative planning within and across courses and departments.

Compensation is commensurate with qualifications and experience; medical benefits are included.

Letters of application, accompanied by a resume should be received via email to: shenderson@chartwell.org. The positions will remain open until filled.
